TELL ME MORE ABOUT UKPROPSOCIAL?

UKPropSocial connects the property community across the Thames Valley, East of England, and West London property markets. Whether online or in person, our events are designed to bring together stakeholders, partners, and sponsors. We then capture the content generated from our events and share it across our journals (Eastern Echo, Thames Tap and London West) which are read by our 7,000+ subscribers each week.

Our programme of events reflects the growing interest and demand by companies from across the property, architectural and construction sectors in the Thames Valley, East of England and West London for quality debate and content. Please take time to read the Membership Pack and come back to us with any feedback or ideas on potential future events or content.

Membership currently sits at 110+ companies with 500+ individual members. This represents a unique market place for members to network with and promote their services.

EVENTS

NETWORKING

Each event will be crafted with key stakeholders and influencers in mind to offer Members insights into topical issues.

PROMOTION

Each event is an opportunity for Members to showcase their skills, brand and project work to other Members and delegates.

LOCATION

We aim to book interesting and topical venues which reflect the built environment and are of architectural merit.

FORMAT

UKPropSocial events are rich in content and we encourage interaction. We aim to ensure each is limited to two hours.

“It was a great evening. Well done to you and the co-organisers for all efforts to make it happen and turning into such a successful event (especially for us!)”

Monika Zemla, ARC Harwell

TESTIMONIALS

“It’s brilliant for networking, especially for me, coming into the industry from consulting. It’s a great way to network with people from different sectors. You meet a lot of people you wouldn’t meet anywhere else. I go to other events and they are not really this kind of level.”

Manjit Bassi, Client Development Manager, Stantec

“Really useful discussions. Thank you”

David Bainbridge, Savills

“Great presentations. Thank you”.
